

Dinka School is a unique school. At Dinka School we aim for excellent performance but also find co-curricular studies important. Some children are not good academically but have strong creative skills or very good at sports. At Dinka, children develop and grow their skills from all angles. They are taught to be self-confident, people with strong morals like honesty, kindness and respect. All the work happening right now to these children, the outcome will be manifested in their future lives. The future employers and leaders of this country are prepared now, kids are taught to dream big, to be entrepreneurs, try, shoot and go for any ambition they might have. The following programs are implemented as a culture of Dinka School and do not interfere the NECTA subjects but to enrich the subjects and
